

Turtle Safe Poem

Use onomatopoeia for the key words – Drop, Cover and Hold	Draw a picture of what you would do at home, if there was an earthquake.
Use an I Pad or computer to look up the website – Easy Science for Kids Earthquakes – Write down some interesting facts that you found out.	Think of 5 interesting words to describe an earthquake. For example, heave, juggling etc

Turtle Safe Poem

Use onomatopoeia for the key words – Drop, Cover and Hold	Draw a picture of what you would do at home, if there was an earthquake.
Use an I Pad or computer to look up the website – Easy Science for Kids Earthquakes – Write down some interesting facts that you found out.	Think of 5 interesting words to describe an earthquake. For example, heave, juggling etc

Turtle Safe Poem

Use onomatopoeia for the key words – Drop, Cover and Hold	Draw a picture of what you would do at home, if there was an earthquake.
Use an I Pad or computer to look up the website – Easy Science for Kids Earthquakes – Write down some interesting facts that you found out.	Think of 5 interesting words to describe an earthquake. For example, heave, juggling etc

Turtle Safe Poem

Use onomatopoeia for the key words – Drop, Cover and Hold	Draw a picture of what you would do at home, if there was an earthquake.
Use an I Pad or computer to look up the website – Easy Science for Kids Earthquakes – Write down some interesting facts that you found out.	Think of 5 interesting words to describe an earthquake. For example, heave, juggling etc